Will Present Petition for Playgrounds to the City Clerk This Week

That the Santa Fe company would object strenuously to any attempt o convert the property owned by the concern west of First street into a municipal park and playground, was the opinion of Superintendent Walker of the Valley Division of the Santa Fe yesterday afternoon. A petition signed by a large number of property owners of the west side will be presented to City Clerk A. C. Faris, asking that the city council begin proceedings to condemn the property for this purpose.

In answer to the question put by Councilman William L. Lane, Walker said:

"I cannot speak officially on the subject, but I think that the company will object strenuously to give the city this property for this purpose. The company plans to use this land for future local development of the system here and I believe that they would object."

However, it is believed that Mr. Walker was confused on the location suggested, the Santa Fe company having previously intimated that it could be glad to dispose of its property west of First street. Mr. Walker probably referred to the land north of First street.

The petition for the playground and park on the property of the Santa Fe west of First street was drawn up yesterday by the West Side Commercial Club and will be distributed for signatures this week.

Mr. H. C. Stidham, a prominent and active member of the club, said last night: "It is of vital importance to the city that Richmond secure playground property now. San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland and other cities are excellent examples of the cost of delay has meant in these matters. Richmond will certainly make progress and the land which we can now secure at a comparatively small figure will advance to large figures in a few years."

In that statement, Mr. Stidham has summed up the situation. Many people are against an increase in taxes. They declare that they are through with bond elections and do not desire to be made to pay any higher taxes. This is certainly a good argument against high taxes. But in this instance it a poor one.

Richmond will eventually have playgrounds. The land which can now be purchased at a very small figure will advance many times in years to come. To secure playgrounds now would mean an increase in taxes so small that it would hardly be recognized.

A few years hence when progress would demand playgrounds and parks, the increase in taxes would be large. The Daily News desires to "hammer in this point." This is not an attempt to unload some real estate on the people of Richmond. To the contrary, the Daily News merely wishes to emphasize some facts.

The Daily News does not want the people to enter this matter in a haphazard manner. The Daily News desires that every Richmond property owner and resident investigate the records of San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles. It is a proposition which demands immediate attention.

Don't begin to "knock" until you are satisfied that you have grounds for not desiring to place this matter on the ballot NOW. As soon as you are acquainted with the histories of Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, the Daily News is confident that the "high tax rate bugaboo" will be shattered and you will become an earnest advocate for playgrounds and parks.

COUNTY HAS NO SCHOOL LANDS FOR SALE

Contra Costa county bears the distinction of being one of the very few counties in the state which have no school lands for sale. This is the statement made by Surveyor General W. S. Kingsbury, who has finished his report of the lands which will be sold at public auction some time during next month.

There are 608,628.77 acres of land to be sold to the highest bidder.

In a letter issued to those who inquire for school lands, Kingsbury says that authentic lists of lands in each county will be issued soe time in September. The issuance of this list will be followed by sale of lands at auction in accordance with the terms of Senate Bill 906, passed by the last Legislature.

Actors Should Keep Clear of This Concern

ATTENTION! VAUDEVILLE ACTORS! Do not apply to Eatoon and Smith for positions, if life is valued.

This advertisement may soon appear in local newspapers.

Eaton and Smith, contractors, are looking for one Antone S. Enchinadie. Antone was employed to assist in digging the sewer on the Cutting boulevard. He worked with might and main. Saturday Antone collected his wages. But Antone wasn't satisfied with only one set of wages. He did a quick change act and appeared and asked for the salary check of George Spaghetti. And he got it. Then Antone did another quick change act and he collected Henry Tamale's check. When Henry and George came around for their checks they were informed that while their services were very valuable, the company could not see why they should be entitled to a pair of checks.

An investigation disclosed Antone's trick. It is understood that he had formerly been a vaudeville actor.

WILL NOT HAVE SPECIAL MAN

That the Great Western Power Co. would refuse to place a service man in Richmond as demanded by Fire Chief Lemoine was the substance of statements made yesterday by F. H. Woodward, Oakland manager for the company.

"We are responsible for any injuries resulting to people or property from our power lines," said Woodward. "There was no loss of service for a moment to any of the companies purchasing power from us. Our Oakland plant is equipped with a repair department for this district and while I cannot positively state the action of the company, I do not believe the Great Western Power Co. will place an extra service man in the Richmond field."

The matter will be argued before the council on next Monday evening, when representatives of the power company will appear to state their side of the matter.

ALVES FUNERAL TO TO-BE TOMOROOW

The funeral of John Alves, the young high school student who was killed on Thursday evening at San Pablo, when the motorcycle which he was riding was run down by a Santa Fe freight train, will be held from the residence of John Quadres, 926 Main street, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

From the Quadres home the remains will be removed to St. Joseph's cemetery at San Pablo, where interment will take place.

The Richmond Maennerchor entertained A. Markstein, proprietor of the Pullman Hotel, in honor of his 38th birthday. Mr. Markstein banqueted the entire Maennerchor and presented the lodge with a beautiful banner in the lodge colors of red, blue and gold. The Maennerchor presented Markstein with a large German stein. The speakers were: President J. Hirt, A. J. Meinderse, E. Pieper, Miss A. Voss, Mrs. A. Markstein, J. H. Goodwin, Mrs. A. J. Meindersee and A. Markstein. The Richmond Maennerchor orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

RETURN FROM SEBASTOPOL.

Mrs. W. T. Beck and daughter, Georgiana, of 224 Third street, have returned home after a pleasant visit of two months at their ranch near Sebastopol.

Mrs. Robert Cleek was entertained at a dansant by her many friends last night in College hall. An orchestra furnished the music. Refreshments were served and all had a very enjoyable time.

UNFORTUNATE WOMAN FORGIVEN

GORDON IS IN FAVOR OF THE CROSSINGS OF GRADE

State Railroad Commissioner Alexander Gordon yesterday announced that he would grant the city grade crossings at Third, Fifth and Eighth streets over the Santa Fe company's Oakland branch, provided several provisions were agreed to by the city. After receiving testimony from the Santa Fe company and city, Gordon stated that he would grant the crossing providing the approaches were changed. He also stipulated that Second street, now open, must be closed should the crossings be granted. The present plan of grade was at direct right angles.

Gordon proposed that the angles be made at a 13 per cent degree.

In order to give the protestants an opportunity to decide, Goordon postponed his decision until September 20. This will allow time to decide whether his proposition will prove satisfactory.

A large number of property owners and members of the city council were present at the hearing.

Had Sam Owed $10 Criminal Suit Probable

Eight dollars and seventy-five cents isn't much of a fortune. But just at present it is the cause of a law suit. Yesterday at Martinez, Attorney Clare D. Horner of this city filed suit in behalf of C. W. McMaster, local street bill collector, against Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fisher. McMaster, in his action claims that the Fishers are an even $8.75 in arrears in the settlement of their street work, and being a very conscientious collector, McMaster believes in getting every cent due. The document filed by Horner is a voluminous one. The cost of the suit will probably exceed many times the size of the original bill.

NARBETT PLANS MARTINEZ HOME

James T. Narbett, the local architect, was commissioned by Frank Prosser to prepare plans and specifications for the store building and apartment house which he will erect on his property at the corner of Ferry and Howard streets, Martinez.

Narbett has already drafted a preliminary plan, calling for three large stores and the Peerless saloon on the ground floor and seven apartments of three rooms each on the second floor, which will be reached by a wide stairway. A court in the rear will be so arranged that every room in the building will be an outside room. The plans will be completed shortly and estimates of cost of construction asked by the owner of the property.

MRS. CARTER CALLED TO EAST BY MOTHER

"You have my forgiveness. Come home immediately if you would see your brother alive." Mother.

This telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. Carter, who recently came into considerable notoriety as a "strike breaker" at the California Cotton Mills in Oakland. Mrs. Carter will leave Tuesday morning for her mother's home in Atlanta, Ga., with her 22-months-old baby.

Mrs. Carter came into public print recently during the strike at the cotton company. After the settlement of the strike, she was discharged by the company and she came to this city. She sought assistance. The supervisors granted her a pass to her home in the East, but she refused it.

The reason was not disclosed until yesterday.

She had married against the wishes of her mother and following her trouble in Oakland, refused to go home, preferring to remain in this section and starve rather than face her mother. Her husband was killed in a street car accident in San Francisco and for several months she has maintained an uphill battle for subsistence.

"I am so happy that my mother has forgiven me," she said last night. "My happiness is clouded with the news of my brother's serious illness. I hope that the people of Richmond will not think me an adventuress, but believe me when I say that I have always tried to do the right thing."

It was reported at the time that Mrs. Carter refused the transportation to her home in the East that "there was a man in the case."

TO DEMONSTRATE NEW FIRE TRUCK

A demonstration of the Seagrave pumper fire engine will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at Washington and Richmond avenues. The test will be for the purpose of demonstrating the force of two and a half inch hose through 1000 feet up a 12½ per cent grade. At 11:30 o'clock a demonstration will be held at Tenth streets and Macdonald avenue, when the force for fighting fires in high buildings will be shown.

TOM KELLY

Everyone loves an Irishman if he is the kind like Tom Kelly, full of fun, with a ready wit and a heart of gold. His career has been such as to prove him the most successful Irish comedian of the day. His coming to Richmond for the Richmond Theater today has been looked forward to, not only by the sons and daughter of Erin but by everyone who takes delight in the best that vaudeville can furnish.

When Kelly comes on the stage it is the signal for the laugh, not for any outlandihh costume which he may wear, but from the very characteristics of his person. He is a natural born comedian, each of pose and full of the rich jokes which have made the emerald isle the main stream of good comedy.

Kelly is the hero of many triumphs on the Orpheum and Pantages circuits and his coming to Richmond is a distinct step in the standards of vaudeville for the city. With this premier performer will be seen a show of the best acts to be seen on any stage and the announcement of the programme has been the signal for many anticipations.

"The Truth Girls," Graham and Carville, are charming, too, and sure to interest the audience with their unique act. Richards and Lawrence have a German comedy act ond R. C. Faulkner draws cartoons before the eyes of the audience. He is the original chalk artist.

Monday's and Tuesday's shows will include Albert Chevalier in "The Middleman," a Keystone comedy entitled "Mabel's Wilful Way," and a two-act drama, "Peggy Lynn, Burglar."

—INITIATE FIVE.

Five candidates were initiated into the first rank of the Knights of Pythias last night at their meeting in Pythian Castle. Six candidacs will be initiated into the second rank next Friday night.

MARTINEZ HAS "GERM."

Apparently the "playground bug" is gaining in popularity. Word comes from Martinez that a playground and park will soon be established if negotiations now pending are completed. Let us all hope that the much needed playgrounds in Richmond are established NOW. Not a century hence.

GROWTH RECOGNIZED.

It is interesting to note that the growth of Richmond is so generally recognized. Speak to anyone who has not been in Richmond for five years and the answer will always be: "The growth of Richmond has been remarkable." Mr. Alex Gordon, State Railroad Commissioner, is a business man. He doesn't give out statements merely for the purpose of "boosting a town." He says what he thinks and believes. Mr. Gordon believes that Richmond has a wonderful future. And he says so. He is surprised at the marvelous development of Richmond. And he says so. And when he says these things, he doesn't say them merely to see his name in print. He says them because he believes what he says and knows what he is talking about.

Mr. Gordon is a prominent figure in the state. He has visited every city of note in the state, and his opinion can certainly be construed as important by Richmonders as well as prospective investors in this city.

HILO TRIBUNE UNCOMPLIMENTARY.

The Hilo Tribune, Hawaii, cannot be called a great admirer of the Rev. Billy Sunday. In fact the Tribune is very uncomplimentary in its thoughts. The following is an editorial from its columns relative to Mr. Sunday:

Honolulu has no trouble digging up a $10,000 guarante for Billy Sunday and his alleged religious circus. That is, the religious part of the title is alleged. There is no doubt about he and his aggregation of paid revivalist performers being a cricus.

And still we read almost daily in the Honolulu newspapers that some poor victim of tuberculosis has died without attention, because all the tubercular wards in the several hospitals are filled to capacity. Religion, as related to the check book, has a very strange modern way of following the Christian adjunction to be charitable.

Physicians assure us, however, that to laugh and be entertained is healthy, so perhaps the good folks of Honolulu intend that the poor consumptives be cured by seeing the performance of Billy Sunday. There is no denying that he is laughable and entertaining—albeit not convincing as a follower of the Savior—but even so, we fear the poor sick people of Honolulu will be frightened away by the passing of the hat, a part of the performance which is never eliminated at the Sunday circus.

But this is the only explanation we have for the liberality of the Honolulu people shown in importing an entertainer with a big guarantee, especially when money is said to be so badly needed for other charitable purposes. After all, it doeos not appear to be so far stretched when you remember that it was a Honolulu censor board which passed "Tillie's Punctured Romance" as a biblical and educational photo play for a Sabbath performance. To tell the truth, there is more religion in that picture than there is in Billy Sunday, or any of his staff of sad-faced shouters. Billy would appear as "Naked Truth" if he thought it would fatten his receipts.

Nevertheless, if it were not that the Billy Sunday circus will keep some good vaudeville from coming to the islands, Hilo would not kick over Honolulu's choice of entertainment. As it is, no other vaudeville show will attempt to play the island circuit while the Sunday circus is billed for it draws its audience from both the churches and the theaters. He is an attraction with which a light garbed chorus girl has no chance to compete. Even Hen Wise is contemplating the seeking of new fields before the arrival of the variety revival show.

It is presumed that the Billy Sunday show is expected by its importers to eradicate evil and the devil from the Paradise of the Pacific. We hate to be pessimistic, but we feel that all the eradicating the circus will do will be through the removal of currency from these islands.

IMPORTANT GAME AT MR. LUCE'S PARK TODAY

Jeff Woods will be one of the arbiters in today's contest at the First Street grounds. An article published in a Vallejo newspaper that Woods had severed connections with the local management is groundless.

Bill Luce has received many surprises, but yesterday afternoon the handsome manager of the Elks got one that almost resulted in Bill's sudden demise. Imagine Denny J. Healey sending a fellow a couple of cent stamps! Dooesn't seem possible, but that is just what Luce received from Mr. Healey. In the communication Mr. Healey inquired: "And please tell me what you told the reporter" (referring to the Daily News). Probably Denny wants to start something, but if Denny is half as wise as he loves jitneys, he will use his head.

Healey has been placed on the taboo list by Sebastopol and there isn't a ghost of a show of Petaluma lanoing with Richmond with third bird at the head of te club. If Healey desires any further information as to his "eleventh hour hold-up acts," all that is necessary is a letter to this department and we would be pleased to unload a bunch of real facts! Perhaps Mr. Healey will take the hint and shut up.

While we are on the subject, let us continue. Probably few fans realize this: Practically every club, including the Coast League, is not making any barrel of kale this season. While someo f the fans may think that baseball is a big moneymaker, a perusal of the club's expenses will certainly give some elucidating information. Healey knows this. He knows, or he ought to know, that hei s about the only semi-pro. manager who is making a good thing out of baseball this season. Therefore, his attempts to hold other managers up for extra cash to play at their park can only be construed to mean that Denny intends to get the shekels at any cost. If Denny will write a similar communication to the one received by Luce yesterday, to Joe Thomas at Sebastopol, or some of the other managers he has had dealings with, he will probably receive some surprising answers.

Gordon and Kramer, two of te best semi-pro pitchers in the West, will oppose each other in the match at Luce Park this afternoon, which will decide whether Richmond will be in line for the state title. That both clubs are on edge for the coming match is putting it mildly. The members of the Sebastopol and Richmond teams are just naturally straining at the leasch and when these two rivals clash this afternoon, fans will witness one of the greatest diamond matches ever dispensed in these parts. The interest in previous contests is overshadowed by the importance of today's battle.

It is a contest which will require the best there is in both clubs. There is not one member of either club who is not confident of success. Manager Willie Luce, announced last night that Butch Woodbury would be in action in today's match. Butch has been parcticing on the field during the week and now has every indication of handling everything that comes his direction without any trouble. The addition of Woodbury to the fold should be a deciding factor in the contest. Butch is a hard hitter, as will be seen from his batting average, and is always amongst those present in a pinch.

Richmond will need hits to win today's game, and as the boys are hitting far in excess of the pace set by Sebastopol, it certainly appears as if the boys will gather. Woodbury was let out last Sunday of his own volition. He desired a rest, and during the week's interval has been working hard. To Butch, Richmond fandom can look to aid materially in gathering in the tallies.

Frank Gordon is in great condition. The fat boy is confident of winning and will go into the contest determined to bring home the bacon. Should Frank wobble, and it doesn't appear likely, Luce will keep Burns and Schinkle warming up the entire game and at the first signs of distress one of these lads will be sent to the firing line.

Confidence with a big C was expressed by all players last night. The boys realize that much, in fact "all," depends upon the outcome of today's battle. They realize that Sebastopol has a great club. But there is no wavering. The boys are determined to win and the fans can rest assured that one of hte greatest diamond matches ever played in Richmond will be dished up for their pleasure.

Sebastopol is coming down about 500 strong. The up-country fans are royal sports and whether they win or lose, the Richmond fans can rest assured that they will take defeat with the same spirit that the band of Richmonders who invaded he Land of Apples last Sunday.

With the exception of Woodbury, there will be no changes in the Richmond lineup. Sebastopol will present the same formation as last Sunday.

"I am confident that we will win," said Luce last night. "The club is in wonderful condition. Every player is confident and determined to win. If we lose it will certainly be a big as well as unpleasant surprise to me."

From indications last night, ideal baseball weather will be in evidence this afternoon. The game will start promptly at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon.

The Richmond Concert Band will play.

All Richmond rooters are requested to make their headquarters in the left field bleachers. The visiting fans will be quartered in right field.

That the contest will draw one of the largest crowds in the history of the park is apparent from the enthusiasm being displayed last night.

Whichever club wins, the winners will realize that they have been in a real hot baseball match, and there will be no "sore heads" on either side. We certainly, sincerely, etc., hope that the Elks win, but if Richond loses, there will be no alibi provided. It will simply be a case of meeting a better club. To our simple mind, Richmond has the better club. Its batting is sweeter than thath of Sebastopol and there is nothing to pick from between the rival pitchers. As a baseball game, this is going to be a royal battle, and there will be few who will overlook the opportunity to be present to witness the MOST IMPORTANT GAME IN RICHMOND'S HISTORY.

The clubs will line up as follows:

RICHMOND ELKS.

Gordon Burns, Schinkle	Pitchers
Cleek	Catcher
Ingraham	First base
Christensen	Second base
Benn	Third base
Conger	Shortstop
